Comments –

The field jumped away well, SARAH’S JULE taking up an early lead head of race favourite EQUICHUNK. Along the back straight SARAH’S JULE held a slender lead over EQUICHUNK, the race favourite in a lovely position in the run, poised to strike at any moment, the rest of the field bunched up behind the leading pair. Rounding the bend the field swung wide aside from GRAVITY, who saved ground hugging the rail, and at the top of the straight was on terms with SARAH’S JULE and EQUICHUNK. On the dash for home SARAH’S JULE began to tire, the race favourite EQUICHUNK let down and looked to flash home, FRENCH ROCK letting down while sneaking up the inside of GRAVITY, HURRICANE SONNY flashing home late out wide in what was an exceptional finish, FRENCH ROCK doing enough to edge out a brave EQUICHUNK, running the fastest last 200 metre of the race and recording a tough win.

RACE 5, 1100m
