SURREAL STORM was slow into stride and settled at the rear of the field. Early speed was good from race favourite BELVIDERE PRINCE, leading the initial stages of the event, ahead of WONGABELLE. Around the bend BELVIDERE PRINCE still led the way, albeit narrowly from WONGABELLE, with NEVADEAN posted three wide approaching the top of the straight. At the top of the straight the race favourite looked to kick clear and still led the way with 200 metres to run, before fading with 50 metres to go as WONGABELLE and JUSTAKIDD shot past BELVIDERE PRINCE, the pair hitting the line in unison, JUSTAKIDD doing just enough to score on debut whilst also running the fastest last 200 metres of the day.
